Nc'letk'u (Coldwater Band)

AND:

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE NICOLA SIMILKAMEEN DISTRICT (No. 58)
(the "Board")
(collectively, the "Parties")

WHEREAS

- A. On July 1, 2018, the Province of British Columbia (the "Province"), the Government of Canada and the First Nations Education Steering Committee ("FNESC") entered into the BC Tripartite Education Agreement ("BCTEA"). Consistent with the implementation of BCTEA, the Province and FNESC are working together to make systemic shifts to support successful educational outcomes of all First Nation students, regardless of where they live or are enrolled in school in British Columbia, through the provision of high quality and culturally relevant elementary and secondary educational programs and services, and supported by funding that is responsive to the unique needs of First Nation Students and communities.
- B. Local Education Agreements ("LEAs") are an integral part of the delivery of educational programs and services to First Nation students attending BC Public Schools, as they are an important mechanism for building relationships between First Nation communities and boards of education and BC Public Schools to support improved First Nation student outcomes.
- C. The Province, the Government of Canada, and FNESC developed LEA Guiding Principles, pursuant to Schedule H of the BCTEA to, among other things, apply to and be incorporated substantively into this Nc'letk'u LEA to inform and guide boards of education and Nc'letk'u in implementing this Nc'letk'u LEA.
- D. Indigenous peoples have the right to establish and control their educational systems and institutions, as affirmed in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples ("UN Declaration"), and as an aspect of their inherent right of self-government as recognized and affirmed under section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982.
- E. The Province enacted the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act ("Declaration Act") on November 28, 2019, the purposes of which include to affirm the application of the UN Declaration to the laws of British Columbia, and which requires the provincial government to, in consultation and cooperation with Indigenous peoples, take all measures necessary to ensure the laws of British Columbia are consistent with the UN Declaration and to develop an action plan to meet the objectives of the UN Declaration.

- F. Article 14 of the UN Declaration, affirms, inter alia, the right of Indigenous people to all levels and forms of education of the State without discrimination, and that States shall, in conjunction with Indigenous peoples, take effective measures, in order for Indigenous individuals, particularly children, including those living outside their communities, to have access, when possible, to an education in their own culture and provided in their own language.
- G. The Province released its Draft Principles that Guide the Province of British Columbia's Relationship with Indigenous Peoples in May 2018 ("10 Principles"), which provide guidance on how representatives of the Province engage with Indigenous peoples. The preamble provides that the 10 Principles:

"...are intended as bold statements to guide this new relationship and end the denial of Indigenous rights that have led to disempowerment and assimilationist policies and practices. The principles will assure the Province conducts itself in a way that reflects a clear shift in an often troubled relationship with Indigenous peoples to a modern government-to-government relationship that is strong, sophisticated and valued. These principles create the space needed to exercise our respective jurisdictions for the benefit of all British Columbians. We will recognize success when we know Indigenous peoples believe themselves to be self-determining, self-governing, self-sufficient and can practice their Indigenous cultural traditions and customs as an important and respected part of B.C. society." (emphasis added)

- H. Principle 10 of the 10 Principles reflects the Province's recognition of the need to take a distinctions-based approach to its relationship with Indigenous peoples:

"10. The Province of British Columbia recognizes that a distinctions-based approach is needed to ensure that the unique rights, interests and circumstances of Indigenous peoples in B.C. are acknowledged, affirmed, and implemented.

The Province recognizes First Nations, the Métis Nation, and Inuit as the Indigenous peoples of Canada, consisting of distinct, rights-bearing communities with their own histories, including with the Crown. The work of forming renewed relationships based on the recognition of rights, respect, co-operation, and partnership must reflect the unique interests, priorities and circumstances of each people."

- I. Application of this Nc'łetk'u LEA is a step consistent with the Province's implementation of BCTEA, the UN Declaration, the 10 Principles, as well as the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's ("TRC") Calls to Action for reconciliation.
- J. Nc'łetk'u has the authority, pursuant to the School Act, to require this Nc'łetk'u LEA to apply to Nc'łetk'u and the Board.
- K. Nc'łetk'u has authority and responsibility with respect to the education of its children and youth, which includes a funding role with respect to Nc'łetk'u Students, and desires to ensure these children and youth all have access to and receive quality education that is safe, respectful, and reflective of their unique culture and history, and leads to successful education outcomes.

- L. Principals, teachers, and other staff in BC Public Schools have an important role to play in the provision of quality educational programs and services and in the implementation and effectiveness of LEAs.
- M. This Nc'łetkʷu LEA sets out measures for a relationship between the Parties to support Nc'łetkʷu Students, as well as terms and conditions regarding the purchase of educational programs and services by Nc'łetkʷu from the Board for the Nc'łetkʷu Students.
